St. Paul Martha's Daughters Ministry (Altar Linens)

Our Mission

The Martha's Daughters Altar Linen Ministry of St. Paul Catholic Church, inspired by the love of Jesus Christ, understand that our parish altar linens may contain remains of the Precious Body and Blood. We assure that altar linens are reverently washed, starched, pressed and folded for use each week at Mass.

Who We Are

We are St. Paul parishioners who are willing to work behind the scenes to ensure that our parish linens are reverently laundered and ready for use.

What We Do

We, the Martha's Daughters Altar Linen Ministry of St. Paul Catholic Church:

- Collect the soiled linens and towels from the Working Sacristy.
- Wash, starch, iron and fold linens according to instructions.
- Return linens to the working Sacristy and place them in the storage cabinet with other linens.

How You Can Join Us

Our focus is to handle the altar linens reverently and keep them sparking white, appropriately starched, neatly ironed and carefully folded.

The only qualification you need for this ministry is to show a desire to serve our Lord behind the scenes.

We would love to train you as an altar linen minister. It is a rewarding experience to realize quiet pride in observing our accomplishments at the Liturgy Service.

If you are interested in joining us in the Ministry please fill out the form on the reverse and return it to the rectory office, place it in the collection basket, or mail it to St. Paul Catholic Church, P.O. Box 292280, Sacramento, CA 95829. You may also contact the rectory at 916.381.5200 or speak to any Martha's Daughters Altar Linens Ministry Team Member.
